

2010 Women For Habitat: Seeking Volunteers

Many thanks for considering volunteering with the 2010 Women for Habitat housebuild!

There are many ways to participate:

Volunteer on Thursday or Saturday as part of the all-women construction crew; serve as a "greeter" from 8 to 9 am on Thursday or Saturday (collect signed waivers, get name tags on, sell T-shirts, deliver brief orientation speech - training on May 12th!); serve as "lunch hospitality" from 11 am to 1 pm on Saturday to help lunch provider get set up, ensure they are recognized and that a blessing is delivered, enjoy lunch and visit with volunteers, help with cleanup; or provide lunch on a Saturday (can be as simple as sandwiches, cookie, chips and a drink).

A few ladies have signed up for greeter and lunch hospitality on the same day so they can stay to visit and help on site but not be committed to construction work. We're only a month away from kicking off our 14th house built by Women for Habitat! We are looking for a group who might want to provide lunch for the ladies this summer. The Saturdays still open are: May 29, July 24 and 31, Aug. 7, Aug. 14 and Aug. 28.
